

“Live Webcast of Prime Minister’s Address to Famers, Agriculture Scientists and other Stake holders in Krishi Unnati Mela 17th March, 2018 at 11:30am”

Dakshin Dinajpur Krishi Vigyan Kendra under the administrative control of Uttar Banga Krishi Viswavidyalaya, West Bengal celebrated programme of gathering of farmers and Speech of the Prime Minister in National Conference for KVKs which was held on 17th March, 2018 at ICAR-IARI, Pusa, New Delhi. On this occasion, Hon’ble Prime Minister of our country delivered address to the delegates and farmers of country from the stage of National Conference for KVKs. The programme of Krishi Unnati Mela and addressing speech of Hon’ble Prime Minister has been shown through webcasting at our KVK premises on 17th March, 2018 from 11.00 am in its own premises. In this occasion all together 876 number of farmers and farm women were presented in Dakshin Dinajpur Krishi Vigyan Kendra. About 16 number of officials presented in the programme. In this programme, Deputy Director of Extension Education, UBKV, Senior Scientist and Head (In charge), All SMSs and other staffs of KVK presented. The objective of programme has been explained by Deputy Director of Extension Education, UBKV and Senior Scientist and Head (In charge) of the KVK before the farmers. The farmers and women saw the various technology which was visited by the Prime Minister in the Krishi Unnati Mela. They also listened and saw the Speech of Prime Minister. The Farmers were happy to listen the encouraging speech of Hon’ble Prime Minister.

Important snapshot regarding the programme

Farmers see the Webcast

Scientists, Stakeholders, Farmers

View of Krishi Unnati Mela